Charges

3. (1) There shall be charged and paid upon Postal Packets the Charges specified in the Schedule of Charges. The appropriate charge is dependent on the service, the destination, the format, weight and dimensions of the Postal Packet as set out in the Schedule of Charges.

(2) Postal Services for the Blind shall be transmitted by post without Charge and the transmission thereof shall be subject to these terms and conditions.

(3) Charges shall become due as soon as a Postal Packet is presented to An Post for delivery.

(4) Unpaid Charges shall be recoverable as a simple contract debt as provided in Section 49 of the Act.

(5) Any condition, term, standard or requirement in these terms and conditions which affects or relates either to:

   (a) the eligibility, of a Postal Packet to be included in a service, or

   (b) the eligibility or entitlement of a person to use, avail of or benefit from service, may be waived, dispensed with or varied by An Post in any individual case and as regards any person, or generally from time to time, provided that such waiver, dispensation or variation would or is calculated to increase the use of service by any person or group or class of persons.

(6) An Post may in any case in which it considers it just, reasonable or advantageous to do so, refund to any person a Charge which is paid to it in relation to a service and may attach such conditions to such refund as it deems appropriate.

(7) An Post may in case of doubt or dispute, decide under which service any particular Postal Packet shall be or has been conveyed.

(8) Services provided under these terms and conditions are presently exempt from VAT. If Value Added Tax is payable on any Service, Value Added Tax shall be payable in addition to the Charge.
Modes of Prepayment

4. (1) Postage may be prepaid either:
   (a) by adhesive postage stamps including labels printed by An Post at a Post Office;
   (b) by impressions of a Postal Franking Machine under the direction or by the permission of An Post;
   (c) by the use of a Ceadúnas produced stamped envelope, cover, postcard, or other form; or
   (d) in such other manner as An Post may from time to time prescribe,

(2) Any Charge payable in respect of a service must be prepaid unless An Post and the person liable to such Charge have otherwise arranged.

(3) A claim or counterclaim made shall not be made the reason or deferring or withholding payment of monies payable or liabilities incurred to An Post.

(4) All amounts outstanding greater than thirty (30) days from the date of invoice shall be subject to an interest rate charge of 1.5% per month compound interest for each month for which the amount remains unpaid unless otherwise prescribed.

Prohibitions

5. (1) There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any Postal Packet which contains any of the items listed in the Second Schedule or which is outside of the maximum dimensions or weight set out in Condition 14(4).

(2) The sender of a Postal Packet which contravenes Condition 5(1), shall be liable for all costs incurred in its disposal and for all loss arising from damage to other Postal Packets or to An Post staff or equipment or for loss arising from delays or disruption to service. An Post shall have no obligation to return the Postal Packet to the sender or to deliver it. An Post may dispose of it as it thinks fit and shall incur no liability to the sender.

(3) Postal Packets containing or consisting of any item which is prohibited under Condition 5(1) may be delivered subject to such restrictions or requirements as An Post may specify from time to time.

Packing

6. (1) Every Postal Packet must be made up and secured to prevent injury to any other Postal Packet in course of conveyance by post or to any receptacle in which the same is conveyed, or to an officer of An Post or other person who may deal with such Postal Packet or to postal equipment or to third party property. Where An Post has published special rules in relation to the packing of any particular Postal Packet or article such rules shall apply.

(2) Any article contained in a Postal Packet shall be adequately packed as a protection against damage in course of conveyance by post and in particular:
   (a) An article which is of a fragile nature shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength and shall be surrounded in that container with sufficient and suitable material to protect the article against the effect of such concussion, pressure and knocks to which Postal Packets are ordinarily exposed in conveyance by post, and the Postal Packet shall bear the words ‘FRAGILE WITH CARE’ written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address.
(b) An article which is liable to be damaged by bending shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength to prevent the article from being bent in transmission by post, and the Postal Packet shall bear the words ‘DO NOT BEND’ written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address.

(3) Every Postal Packet (except a Postcard) must be packed and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper, or cover, in such a manner as is calculated to preserve the contents from loss or damage in the post and to prevent any tampering with its contents.

(4) The sender shall indemnify An Post against all loss it may incur arising from any failure by the sender to comply with this Condition.

Position of Stamp and Return Address

7. Where postage is prepaid the stamp or impression on the Postal Packet shall be in the top-right hand corner of the address side of the Postal Packet. Every Postal Packet shall bear a return address or indication of origin acceptable to An Post. The return address shall appear in the top left hand corner on the address side of each Postal Packet or to the left of the address on a Postal Packet in roll form.

Endorsements

8. Except with the special permission of An Post, nothing shall be written, printed, or otherwise impressed upon, or across, the stamp on any Postal Packet. An Post may write, print or otherwise impress on any Postal Packet such words or figures or post mark dyes as it considers appropriate, for revenue protection, quality control, redirection or record purposes or pursuant to a direction under section 110 of the Postal and Telecommunications Services Act 1983, and for the purpose of advertising and publicity (including publicity for An Post’s own services) and advertising in accordance with such arrangement as may be entered into between An Post and the advertiser.

Re-direction

9. (1) If the addressee is no longer resident at the address stated on the Postal Packet, the Postal Packet may be redirected to the same addressee at his new address in the State.

(2) Upon any Postal Packet re-directed, there shall be charged in respect of each re-direction and (if not previously paid) shall be paid by the addressee thereof upon the delivery of such Postal Packet an additional charge equal in amount to the charge originally chargeable thereon, provided that An Post may remit such additional charge in the case of a Parcel (whether registered or unregistered) if the Parcel is re-directed to an address served from the same delivery office.

(3) Any redirected Postal Packet which appears to have been opened before being redirected and any Postal Packet which purports to be redirected but which appears to have been treated in a manner designed to evade the payment of any charge payable thereon, shall be dealt with and charged as an unpaid Postal Packet or otherwise dealt with as determined by An Post.

Irregular Posting and Return of Postal Packets

10. (1) Underpaid Postal Packets shall on delivery, be subject to the charges specified in the Schedule of Charges.

(2) An Post may refuse, detain, defer, withhold, return, dispose of and open Postal Packets in exercise of its powers under Section 47 of the Act.

(3) Where due delivery cannot be completed, or where a Parcel exceeds the maximum dimensions or weight specified in Condition 14 (4), An Post may leave a docket at the address of the addressee or sender indicating where and when the Postal Packet may be collected. An addressee or sender may collect the Postal Packet at the times set out on the docket and subject to payment of the Charges specified in the Schedule of Charges. Postal Packets may be held for 5 Working Days. Foreign Postal Packets may be held for 16 Working days.
(4) Where the name of the sender cannot be ascertained from a Packet, the Packet may be retained pending a claim from the sender or addressee. In the absence of any claim within a period of one (1) month of receipt of the Packet or three (3) months of posting the Packet for delivery in the State or six (6) months of posting for a delivery outside the State, the Packet may be disposed of by An Post.

(5) If An Post directs the contents of the Postal Packet to be sold, the proceeds may be applied to pay the Charges (including Customs charge(s)) to which the Postal Packet is subject and any related administrative costs and the balance of the proceeds of sale may be returned to the sender or otherwise disposed of as An Post decides.

(6) An Post may require proof to its satisfaction that an applicant for a Postal Packet is entitled to receive the Postal Packet.

(7) In the event that a Postal Packet is not collected either because the sender or addressee fails to prove to the satisfaction of An Post that he is entitled to receive the Postal Packet, or refuses or fails to pay any Charges to which the Postal Packet has become liable, the Postal Packet may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as An Post may in its discretion decide.

(8) Any Postal Packet in the possession of An Post which becomes offensive or injurious to any officer of An Post, or other person, or to other Postal Packets, or which is likely from its character or condition to become offensive or injurious as aforesaid, or to become valueless before it can be delivered or otherwise dealt with in accordance with the provisions of these terms and conditions, may forthwith be dealt with or disposed of by An Post notwithstanding that the provisions of these terms and conditions as to the return of such Postal Packet have not been, or have only partially been, complied with.

(9) Where a Packet cannot be delivered by reason that the addressee has refused or neglected to pay the Customs or other Charges thereon, or for any other reason, the sender may request that the Packet be

(a) delivered to an alternative addressee if the name and address of the alternative addressee have been furnished by the sender or

(b) the Packet may be delivered or re-transmitted to the original address thereof at the request of the sender or addressee;

In either case, there shall be charged and paid by the addressee to whom the Packet is delivered an additional Charge stipulates in the Schedule of Charges at the appropriate rate chargeable for transmission from the original to the substituted address, or in respect of such delivery or re-transmission as the case may be.

Postal Packets addressed Poste Restante (care of the Post Office)

11. (1) The sender of a Postal Packet addressed to a post office or to a ship or offshore installation at any port in the State, to be called for by the addressee, may add to the address of such Postal Packet a request that the Postal Packet may, if not called for within the time specified in such request, be returned to the sender or some person designated by him.

(2) In such case such Postal Packet shall, at the expiration of the time specified in the request (and subject to and in accordance with these terms and conditions) be returned as specified in such request, and may, if necessary, be opened for that purpose by an officer of An Post duly authorised in that behalf.

(3) Provided that if the time specified in such request exceeds twenty (20) days or the time during which the Postal Packet would (according to the rules of An Post in force for the time being) be retained at the post office to which it is addressed, the Postal Packet shall, notwithstanding any such request, be dealt with in accordance with these terms and conditions.
Postcards

12. The following special conditions shall apply to Postcards:—

(1) A Postcard shall be made of cardboard or paper stout enough not to hinder its manipulation and be equivalent to or in excess of 140 g/m² grammage. Except as An Post shall otherwise direct or authorise in regard to reply Postcards no writing or printing, other than the name and address of the addressee, shall appear on the right-hand half of the face thereof.

(2) Nothing whatever shall be in any manner attached to a Postcard except—

(a) Postage stamps in payment of postage or of sums payable for registration;

(b) Illustrations, drawings, engravings, photographs, stamps of any kind, paper bearing the address or other written or printed matter. Provided that all such articles shall be of such nature as not to alter the character of the postcard, and shall consist of paper or other very thin substance and shall adhere completely to the postcard. Provided also that stamps likely to be mistaken for stamps used for payment of postage shall not be affixed to the address side of a postcard.

(3) In respect of Foreign Postcards: no writing except the address and any postal directions recognised by the Universal Postal Convention, and no printing except that of any of the matters aforesaid shall appear on the right-hand half of the address side of a Postcard.

Postal Services for the Blind

13. The following provisions shall apply to Postal Services for the Blind:—

(1) Every Postal Packet shall bear on the outside thereof the inscription “Postal Services for the Blind” or in the case of a Foreign Postal Packet “Literature for the Blind” and the written or printed name and address of the sender.

(2) Every Postal Packet may be subject to examination in the post.

(3) Every Postal Packet shall be posted either without a cover or in a cover which can be easily removed for the purposes of examination.

(4) A Postal Packet shall not contain any article not being an article for the use of the blind except a label which may bear the name and address of the person to whom the Postal Packet is to be returned.

(5) A Postal Packet shall not contain any communication or inscription either in writing or in ordinary type (except the title, date of publication or manufacture, serial number, names and addresses of the printer and publisher or manufacturer, price and table of contents of the book or paper and the key to or instructions for the use of any special type or of any enclosed article).

(6) No Postal Packet which is presented to An Post as a Postal Packet to be delivered using the Postal Services for the Blind shall contain stamps or forms indicating prepayment whether obliterated or not, or any paper representing monetary value.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in these terms and conditions, a Postal Packet to be delivered by An Post using the Postal Services for the Blind may contain outside or inside the Postal Packet an indication, by hand or by a mechanical process, of the name, position, profession, firm and address of the sender and of the addressee, the date of despatch, the signature, or telephone number, postal cheque or banking account of the sender, as well as a serial or identity number referring solely to the Postal Packet.

(8) Postal Packets to be delivered by An Post using the Postal Services for the Blind shall not exceed 7 kilograms.
Parcels

14. (1) All Parcels intended to be transmitted by post shall (except as otherwise provided in these terms and conditions) be posted by being handed in at a Post Office in the manner hereinafter provided, on the days and within the hours during which such office shall be open to the public for the posting of parcels.

(2) Parcels may also be posted by being handed to some officer of An Post authorised to receive such Postal Packets for conveyance by post from the general public in rural areas.

(3) Where the Dimensional Weight of a Parcel exceeds its weight, the Dimensional Weight shall apply for all purposes.

(4) The maximum dimensions of a Parcel shall be length 1.5 metres and length plus girth 3 metres and the maximum weight shall be the lessor of 20 kilograms or 20 kilograms Dimensional Weight.

Registration

15. (1) Subject to the provisions of these terms and conditions, any Postal Packet may be registered.

(2) The following terms and conditions shall apply to the registration of Postal Packets:—

(a) The Postal Packet must be posted by—

(i) being handed for registration to an officer on duty at a Post Office; or

(ii) being handed for registration to some officer of An Post authorised to receive Postal Packets for registration from the general public in rural areas.

(b) On the posting of the Postal Packet a Certificate of Posting, bearing thereon an acknowledgment showing the value of the contents as declared by the sender and that all charges payable for registration have been paid, will be issued to the sender and should be retained by the sender.

(c) Provided that in the case of the re-direction of a Registered Postal Packet subparagraph (2) (b) of this Condition shall not apply, and, if the person tendering the Postal Packet for registration does not prepay the Charges on the Postal Packet, a Certificate of Posting stating that the said Charges have not been paid will be issued to the sender and should be retained by the sender.

(d) The sender of the Postal Packet must ensure that the Postal Packet is securely fastened and that it is not possible to remove any part of the contents without either breaking or tearing the case, wrapper or cover, forcing two adhesive surfaces apart, or breaking a seal. If a Postal Packet is sealed by strips of adhesive paper or tape, the sender of the Postal Packet must ensure that each strip bears some distinctive mark of the sender, if transparent tape is used, the sender must ensure that its mark is under the adhesive.

(e) An Post may issue a Posting Book to a sender bearing the words “Certificate of Posting” upon which An Post may endorse a certificate of posting, on the posting of a Postal Packet by Registered Post, by affixing a Post Office date stamp to the Posting Book at the entry showing the addressee of the registered Postal Packet and the value of the contents as declared by the sender.

(3) On the delivery of a Registered Postal Packet the addressee or his servant or agent shall give a written receipt for the same in the form prescribed by An Post. Where such person or his servant or agent refuses to give such a receipt the Registered Postal Packet may be withheld and dealt with or disposed of in such manner as An Post may in its discretion direct.

(4) Where An Post is unable to obtain a written receipt at the address of the addressee, it may invite the addressee his servant or agent to collect the Registered Postal Packet at another place subject to the giving by the addressee, his servant or agent of a written receipt in the form prescribed by An Post.
(5) Where it is requested by the Sender, in respect of a Registered Postal Packet which does not contain any item listed in the Third Schedule and subject to the payment by the Sender of the Charges set out in the Schedule of Charges, the limits on compensation set out in Condition 16 (3) shall not apply and the limits specified in the Schedule of Charges shall apply instead.

(6) Where due delivery cannot be completed, An Post may leave a docket at the address of the addressee or sender indicating where and when the Registered Postal Packet may be collected. An addressee or sender may collect the Registered Postal Packet at the times set out on the docket subject to payment of the Charges specified in the Schedule of Charges. Registered Postal Packets may be held for 3 Working Days.

Compensation for Loss and Damage

16. (1) Save as otherwise provided in these terms and conditions, An Post shall have no liability to the sender or to the addressee of any Postal Packet lost, damaged or delayed in any service provided pursuant to these terms and conditions.

(2) Subject to Condition 16 (5) If any Postal Packet is lost, damaged or delayed, by at least seven (7) days if for delivery within the State or by at least ten (10) days if for delivery outside the State, whilst in the custody of An Post, An Post shall pay compensation to any person or persons who establish a reasonable claim to compensation. No compensation shall be paid for consequential loss or the cost of the contents. Compensation shall include the cost of the Charges, cost of the cover of the Postal Packet, the cost of replacement or reproduction of the packaging and a small sum in respect of any other costs. Compensation may be paid in stamps.

(3) Subject to Condition 16 (5) If any article of pecuniary value enclosed in, or forming part of, a Registered Postal Packet, is lost or damaged whilst in the custody of An Post, An Post shall pay compensation to any person or persons who establishes a reasonable claim to such compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it was packed, the Charges paid by the sender, and other circumstances), subject to the following limits:

(a) The amount of compensation payable shall be no greater than the value declared by the sender or €25.39 if no value has been declared.

(b) Subject to Condition 16 (3) (c) and 16 (3) (d) and 16 (4) the compensation payable may not exceed the least of the replacement value of the article lost or the amount of the damage sustained or the value of the contents as shown in the Certificate of Posting (if applicable).

(c) Unless otherwise provided in these terms and conditions, in no event may the amount of compensation exceed €350.

(d) The compensation payable in respect of a Registered Postal Packet:

(i) addressed to anywhere outside Europe (being a Postal Packet other than a Parcel) is limited to €35, being a Parcel is limited to €100 plus Charges paid;

(ii) addressed to Europe excluding United Kingdom and Northern Ireland is limited to €150 plus Charges paid;

(iii) addressed to the United Kingdom and Northern Ireland is limited to €320, plus Charges paid.

(4) Where the transmission of coins is permitted by these terms and conditions compensation in respect of coins (except numismatic coins) shall be limited to €12.70

(5) Compensation shall not be paid for:

(a) the loss of or damage to a Postal Packet containing anything prohibited from transmission by post;

(b) for loss or damage arising from events outside the control of An Post;

or

(c) in respect of damage to Postal Packets containing eggs, soft fruit, liquids, glass, documents or any article of an exceptionally fragile nature.
(d) any consequential loss, damage or injury arising from the loss, damage, delay, non-delivery or mis-delivery of anything sent by post;

(e) in respect of the failure or delay of An Post in presenting documentation to any Customs Authority;

(f) for money or jewellery transmitted by post unless contained in a Registered Post Packet addressed to an address in the State which does not exceed 2 kilograms in weight.

(g) in respect of a Postal Packet if the sender or addressee fails to take delivery within period required by condition 10(3) and 15(6).

(h) in respect of delay or seizure of any Postal Packet by any Customs Authority;

(i) for loss or damage arising from a failure to comply with Condition 5 or 6;

(j) for works of art, glass or ceramics; or

(k) for documents.

(6) The words “Fragile With Care” must be written conspicuously on the face of the cover of any Postal Packet containing fragile items. The presence of these words is a condition of compensation for damage to a fragile article.

(7) The compensation payable under this Condition shall be in substitution for, and not in addition to, any compensation which would otherwise be payable under these terms and conditions.

(8) If any article of pecuniary value enclosed in or forming part of an Insured Letter is lost or damaged whilst in the custody of An Post, An Post may pay to any person or persons who may, in the opinion of An Post, establish a reasonable claim to compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it is packed, changes paid by the sender and other circumstances) such sum as it may consider appropriate.

(9) Compensation may be paid in postage stamps or, in the case of Registered Mail, in either cash or postage stamps.

(10) An Post shall be immune from all liability in respect of any loss or damage suffered by the sender because of (a) any failure or delay in providing, operating or maintaining a postal service to which these terms and conditions apply or (b) any failure, interruption, suspension or restriction of a postal service provided under these terms and conditions.

Posting of Books Abroad up to 5kg Service

17. (1) Every Postal Packet labelled “Letter Packet Containing Books” shall be subject to examination in the post and shall not contain anything sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or contain anything in the nature of current or personal correspondence or invoices or statements of account.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this Condition Postal Packets containing books may be accepted for transmission by Post in sealed internal transparent wrappers within an external unsealed wrapper.

(3) The gross weight of a Postal Packet containing books shall not exceed 5 kgs in weight.

(4) The expression “Letter Packet Containing Books” shall appear on the outer cover of the Postal Packet, on the address side top left hand corner beneath the sender’s address.
